Great Moments

Seven thousand professionals from over a dozen disciplines and specialities will be seen marching out from the portals of the DSI Campus.

Registration is mandatory for participation in the event.

Guidelines for registered participants:

Dress Code -

Men: White full-sleeve shirts with dark-coloured trousers, preferably blue, grey, or black, matching socks, and polished black shoes, belts, and ties. Coming dressed in a full suit is strongly recommended.

Women: Sarees of an individual's & choice with appropriate footwear.

Overall dress sense: This should conform to the needs of the solemn occasion. The internal and external response should reflect the mood, dignity, maturity, and ambiance of the event, which all of you possess. As a grown-up citizen, you now demonstrate a new culture and feeling while walking out of the campus as a proud DSIan, having crossed a critical milestone.

Registration

Please come to the campus at 2:00 PM for registration and a rehearsal on the appointed day. Register your name at the main entrance. Please confirm your participation and if your parents will join you at the event and dinner by 4:00 PM on 26 th October 2023. You are to send the information about the registration to your respective HODs/ Principals.

Graduation March:

Participation is mandatory. Participants would be assigned a number for reference, which needs to be used until the close of the event.

Seating:

You will occupy the designated seats in two specially erected grandstands on either side of the football ground for engineering and all other programmes. The grandstand will ensure the appropriate seating. You would be allowed to go on stage to receive the gold/silver medals if you are a university rank holder, a College/Department Topper, and certificates for completing the academic program.
