FREE DENTAL SCREENING CAMP-25/06/2023

ABALASHRAMA, DVG ROAD, BANGALORE

CAMP REPORT

A dental screening camp was organized at Abalashrama, centre for destitute women and a satellite dental clinic of DSCDS, on 25th June 2023. The designated location from the college was about 4 km. A team of six dental doctors from Dayananda Sagar College of Dental Sciences was coordinated by Dr Avinash, Professor and HOD and Dr. Smitha Kulkarni, Reader from Department of Public Health Dentistry. The dental team reached the camp site by 9:00 AM. A health education programme was organized along with the inauguration for all the attendees of the camp and the residents of Abalashrama. Awareness about oral hygiene, importance of deciduous teeth, common oral health problems and harmful effects of tobacco were made using audiovisual aids, pamphlets and models. After health education programme, screening of patients started at 11.00 am and concluded at 3.00 pm. A total of 93 patients were screened. The team left the camp site by 3.15 pm. All the patients will be treated at Abalashrama FOR simple procedures and will be referred to college for complex procedures.

ANNEXURE -1

Department of Periodontology from Dayananda Sagar college of Dental Sciences has signed an MoU with Curaden, Switzerland for exchange of knowledge and skill programs. Hence a lecture and Hands-on training on iTOP- individually trained oral prophylaxis was conducted on 7/11/2023 which is also observed as "National Brushing day".

The program commenced with an inauguration and welcoming the resource persons dr Kishore Hadal and Dr Ashwin PS, Our beloved Principal Dr Hemanth M and Dr Savita AM- Associate PG dean. Dr Jisha introduced the the speaker Dr Kishore Hadal, Head of Education- Curaden India.

The speaker presented an informative lecture based on itop philosophy and emphasised on the importance of personalised oral hygiene maintenance tips. This was followed by Hands-on training program on individually trained oral prophylaxis carried out in the department of Periodontology. Dr Ashwin PS, who is also a registered itop trainer was also present. Both doctors gave an exclusive training on brushing, flossing and interdental cleaning methods. The staff, post graduates and interns posted in the department were present for the training. The resource persons demonstrated the different tools available for oral hygiene and provided individually trained prophylaxis products which lead to the preservation of oral health.

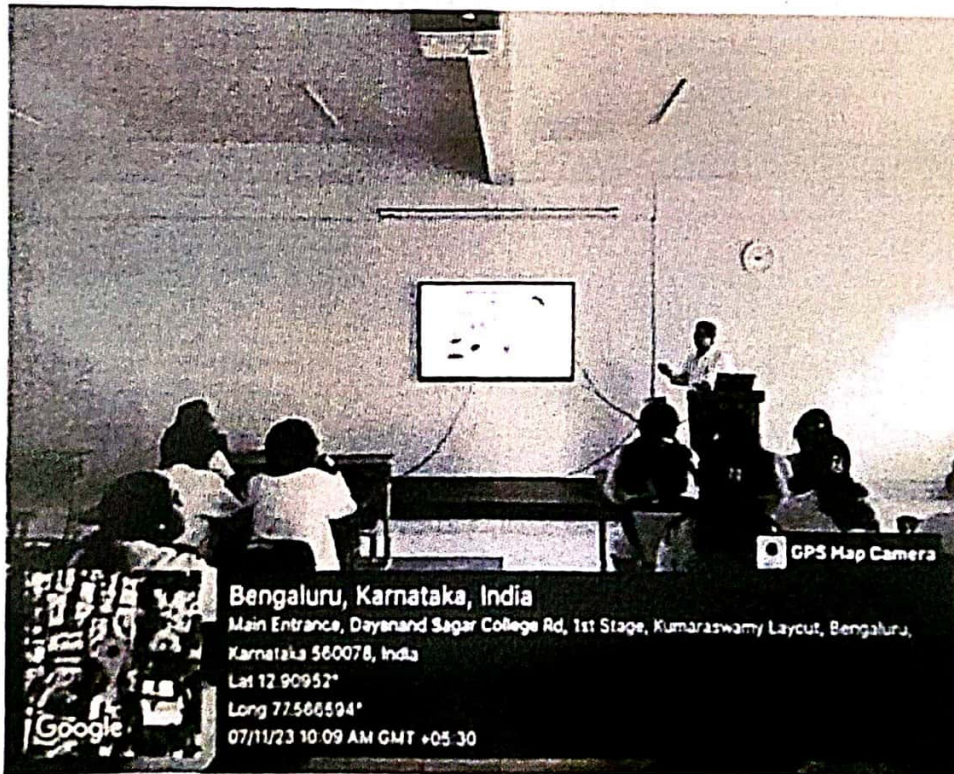

The program was well appreciated by everyone and ended with a group photo with the speakers. A day well spent by the periodontology team.
