Policy Document: Tuition Fee Concessions/Waiver for Students

1. Purpose

This policy outlines the guidelines and procedures for granting tuition fee concessions to eligible students who fall under the categories of:

- Orphans or students with no parents
- Students demonstrating exceptional sports abilities
- Students with physical disabilities

The objective of this policy is to provide financial support and promote inclusivity, ensuring that all students, regardless of their personal circumstances, have access to quality education and the opportunity to excel academically, athletically, and socially.

2. Scope

This policy applies to all current and prospective students enrolled in the institution, who meet the eligibility criteria under any of the three categories outlined below. The concessions provided under this policy will be based on the available budgetary resources and may be subject to review on an annual basis.

3. Eligibility Criteria

3.1 Orphans or Students with No Parents

To qualify for a tuition fee concession under this category, the student must meet the following criteria:

- The student must have lost both parents prior to enrolment or during their time at the institution.
- Documentation proving the student's status as an orphan or a student with no living parents (e.g., death certificates, legal guardianship documents, or similar proof) must be provided at the time of application.
- The student must maintain satisfactory academic progress and demonstrate a commitment to completing their studies.

3.2 Students with Exceptional Sports Abilities

To qualify for a tuition fee concession based on sports abilities, the student must meet the following criteria:

- The student must demonstrate exceptional ability or performance in a recognized sport at the State, National, or International level.
- The student must participate in official competitions or events representing the institution, and maintain a reasonable standard of performance as set by the institution's sports department.
- A recommendation from the relevant sports authorities (e.g., coaches, trainers, or sports federation officials) confirming the student's exceptional sports abilities must be submitted.

• The student must maintain satisfactory academic performance, as determined by the institution, while pursuing their sports career.

- A student must reapply for the concession at the beginning of each academic year, ensuring that all eligibility criteria are still met.
- For students with disabilities or sports abilities, the concession may continue for the duration of their studies, provided they maintain the required academic and performance standards.
- For students with no parents, the concession will continue until the student graduates or reaches the maximum duration of their program, subject to continued eligibility.

8. Responsibilities of the Student

- Maintain a minimum academic performance standard, as specified by the institution.
- Engage in their respective sports or academic programs and demonstrate commitment and discipline.
- Comply with all institution rules and regulations, including those related to behavior and academic integrity.
- Notify the institution of any changes in their circumstances (e.g., change in financial status, parental status, disability, or sports performance).

9. Funding Availability and Limitations

- Tuition fee concessions are subject to the availability of institutional funds and resources. The institution reserves the right to limit the number of concessions granted each academic year.
- The institution may revise or discontinue the policy based on changes in budgetary allocation or institutional priorities.

10. Policy Review

This policy will be reviewed annually by the Governing Council of the institution and updated as necessary to ensure that it remains aligned with the institution's goals and the needs of the student population.
